ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
98-12

WHEREAS, Arizona Supreme Court Administrative Order 97-40 mandates that all judges, Court commissioners, administrators, clerks, probation department staff, and court personnel shall complete a minimum of sixteen hours of approved course work each calendar year, including an ethics training course, as established through the Arizona Supreme Court's Commission on Judicial Education and Training (COJET); and

WHEREAS, prior to 1998, the calendar year for compliance began on the first day of January and ended on the thirty-first day of December. In an effort to streamline the year-end reporting process,

IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLOWS: :

1. Beginning in 1998, and for each subsequent year, the calendar year for COJET compliance for all Mohave County Superior, Justice, and Municipal Court employees shall begin on the first day of January and end on the fifteenth day of December.
2. Local Court Training Coordinators shall submit annual training reports to the Mohave County Court Training Coordinator no later than December twentieth of each year.
3. Failure to comply shall result in disciplinary measures determined by the local court and the presiding judge. A formal report shall be filed with the Mohave County Court Training Coordinator noting the employees who failed to comply, the reasons for non-compliance, and the disciplinary action taken by the court and presiding judge.

Dated this 31st day of March, 1998.
